Changes and additions have been made by the Minnesota Get Ready program. Permission is granted for third party use under the conditions available here which include the following:

Granted Rights—A third party may reproduce, distribute, display, perform or prepare any non-commercial works from Work upon the acceptance of the Terms and Conditions above, with the following exception: Images are used under license from Shutterstock.com and are non-transferable. Third parties wishing to reproduce or adapt this Work must obtain their own license for the images.

Non-Commercial—The Work may be used only for non-commercial purposes. The Work may only be used commercially with written permission from Northern Arizona University.

ShareAlike—Any modification or derivative works must be shared and made publicly available in the same manner as the Work. Third parties may not apply additional restrictions, legal terms, or technological measures that legally restrict others from doing anything the license permits.

This is a human-readable summary of (and not a substitute for) the full terms and condition of use.

Tennessee Warning: In accordance with the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act, the Minnesota Office of Higher Education (OHE) is required to inform you of your rights as they pertain to the private information collected from you. When you show interest in downloading the LAUNCH Guide, the following information is collected: name, title, school/district, and email.

OHE Get Ready/GEAR UP collects this information to evaluate and report on activities funded by Get Ready/GEAR UP. You are not required to provide this information and may contact the Get Ready/GEAR UP Pathways Coordinator at your school to receive the LAUNCH Guide; however, you will not receive information updates. Information you provide is available to you, OHE Get Ready/GEAR UP employees, agents, contractors, the legislative auditors, and upon court order.
